President's Message

Happy spring! It's so nice to know that the snow is behind us--unofficial count is 16 snow storms in the Philadelphia region this past winter.

I would like to update all of you regarding our various activities and upcoming events:

Our luncheons are scheduled at Springfield Country Club for May 6, September 16, and December 9. Please note that we have put our September luncheon back on the schedule.

We had cancelled it last year as we replaced it with our Sunbrook event. However, we have decided that we will plan future Sunbrook events occasionally, not annually.

We have a wonderful speaker planned for our May 6 luncheon--Rich Hayes, Sunoco's expert on credit card security and fraud prevention. He will talk about various scanning devices used in retailing, important do's and don'ts, war stories in the retail marketplace (think Target), and hopefully provide us with some peace of mind in the "swipe" world we live in.

We won't necessarily have a speaker at every future luncheon, but an interesting speaker is always welcome. We would love to hear from you with your suggested topics or speakers, and, of course, being Sunoco-related is not a requirement.

Our Food Cupboard program continues in 2014. As you know, we make donations to local charities that provide food and solace to those in need, and we invite members to nominate non-profit organizations of those who serve. We donated $2935 in 2013, and have contributed over $78,000 to food cupboards in the region since 1990. Considering that all contributions are made from funds that you, our members, have provided, I offer a debt of gratitude on behalf of the board members.

We will soon be adding a link on the DVSA website to the 1608 Club, the social and travel organization managed by Sunoco employees. The 1608 Club is pleased to connect with Sunoco alumni who may enjoy participating in Club events.

All the best to everyone. See you at the May luncheon.

Regards,

Pat Renzulli – 2014 President DVSA
